

ECOPILL

EcoPill is an eco-designed blister pack created through a zero-waste manufacturing process. With 28 detachable cells, it offers outstanding performance in automated dispensing systems.

TECHNICAL SHEET

Format	28 detachable cells
Quantity per box	240 blisters / 500 labels Blister and labels sold separately
Material	Polypropylene (type 5)
Compatibility	SynMed®, VBM, BlistMED, BlistAssist® and Chronomed
Operational benefits	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Sturdy cells for better medication protection- Designed for automation: 10 to 15 times fewer jumpers*.- Easier verification (reduced glare)- Increased medication capacity (morning and bedtime)- Fold and go function: protects patient information (no need for a bag)- Clear time-of-day identification (morning, noon, evening, bedtime)- Rounded edges to prevent cuts *For automation with SynMed® robots.
Eco-friendly product	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Zero-waste manufacturing process- Contains 30% recycled plastic*- Product density & individual cell identification ensures maximum recyclability- Contains no toxic substances (PVC, BPA or others)- Labels made from 100% recycled fibers- Biodegradable adhesive *Post-industrial recycled material from our closed-loop production chain
Additional accessories	Yes - visit ecolopharm.com
Availability	Available from most Canadian distributors.

